

GOLDEN AGERS

Celebrating Seniors, Enjoying Life & Laughter

VOLUME 8, ISSUE 40

OCTOBER 4, 2024

National Farmer's Day

From very early in American culture, farmers set an example with their hard work. Not only do they provide us with the food we eat, but they also contribute to our economy in numerous ways. Before seeds even go into the ground, farmers supply a stream of jobs. From manufacturing, marketing, and tourism, farmers keep small & large communities going strong. Additional products and areas that rely on agriculture include: leather, apparel, restaurants, beverages, textiles, trucking, railroad, forestry, pharmaceuticals, & transportation.

We are blessed to have multiple farmers in our church family & many restaurants in our area that are farm to table because of it. How can you support these hard workers who keep us fed? Buy local! Go to stores/restaurants that also buy local.

Now for the important stuff.

Weekly Giggles

- Chocolate is nature's way of making up for Mondays.
- They say every piece of chocolate you eat shortens your life by two minutes. I've done the math. It seems I died in 1537.
- Do not argue with an idiot. He will drag you down to his level and beat you with experience. Or, as my ma-in-law used to say, "never argue with someone you have to educate."
- I went to a school reunion. It was not fun. Someone invited a bunch of old people.
- My husband just opened my car door for me. Would have been a nice gesture had we not been going 70 mph.
- I bought a bag of air today. The company that made it was kind enough to put some potato chips in it as well.
- I want to be a teenager again & ruin my life differently. I have new ideas.
- My daughter has trained our dogs to come running anytime you spill something on the floor and yell, "HOUSEKEEPING!" It is the funniest & most satisfying thing ever.
- I had a goldfish that could break dance on the carpet...but only for like 20 seconds...and only once.
- "Just cleared out some space in the freezer" sounds so much more productive than "I just polished off another pint of ice cream."
- My goal is to be that old person that everyone is afraid to take out in public.
