

Golden Agers Rock!

CELEBRATING SENIORS MAKING THE BEST OF THE REST OF THEIR LIVES

VOLUME 7, ISSUE 3

JANUARY 20, 2023

It's National Pie Day!

I have always been a baker and pies are some of my favorite things to make! The first one I ever learned to cook was a fudge pie that makes its own crust. You start by melting a stick of butter and two squares of unsweetened chocolate in a small saucepan. It looks great, but, I still remember the look on my baby sister, Kathy's face when she asked to lick the spoon and Mom said, "yes, take a big lick." Lesson learned. That is not a spoon to lick at the beginning of the recipe, but it fabulous to lick (along with the pan) at the end.

My great-grandma, Eula, used to make a fabulous Cherry "Pizza" Pie. Yep, she pressed the crust into a pizza pan, cooked it, cooled it, and then added the wonderful cream cheese "sauce" before the final cherry pie filling for topping. The best "pizza" ever!

Ok, now on to important stuff!
