Fall Is Finally Here!

Fall is a busy time here at St. Peter's! I hope you're all planning to come to our Stewardship Dinner on the 27th at 6 pm. If you need a ride, call me. I'll be more than happy to come and get you!

Work has begun on our Cantata & it will be beautiful as usual. It's scheduled for December 8th at 11 am & 6 pm. Don't forget that preludes begin 30 minutes prior. Camille Jones & I play Christmas songs together on the piano. I can get you a ride to this as well. It's definitely a "not miss" event.

Now for the important stuff.

The Week of October 20-26 is:

- Apple Butter Days
- Character Counts Week
- Massage Therapy Week
- Pharmacy Week
- School Bus Safety Week

Weekly Giggles

-Some people drink deeply from the well of knowledge. Some just rinse and spit.

-Camping: where you spend a small fortune to live like a homeless person.

-Every time someone in my house leaves an empty box in the freezer or panty, I am going to wrap it in Christmas paper & put it under the tree with their name on it.

-I put the SHE in shenanigans.

-I think my dog always follows me to the bathroom because I always follow him outside and he thinks that's the way it works.

-If anyone tells you to stop eating so much chocolate, stop talking to them. You don't need that kind of negativity in your life.

-Day 12 without chocolate. Lost hearing in my left eye.

-I'd give up chocolate, but I'm no quitter.

-Chocolate: the most effective yet the cheapest psychologist on the planet.

-It's okay if some people dislike you. Not everyone has good taste.

Wisdom From Kids

- "A Calzone is a sleeping bag for cheese." ~ Fred, age 7
- "Reading a book is like binge watching words." ~ Miguel, age 9
- "Butter is lotion for waffles." ~ Caroline, age 7
- "Band-aids are like tiny hugs for your sores." ~ Rose, age 4
- "Why call them fish when you can call them water birds?" ~ Joe, age 8

When you let your toddlers dress themselves for church, cowboy boots & Cinderella dress will almost always be the option.
