

October 24th is Mother-in-Law Day!

Modeled on the celebration of Mother's Day and Father's Day, Mother-in-Law's Day was first celebrated on March 5, 1934 in Amarillo, Texas, where it was initiated by the editor of the local newspaper.

Mothers-in-law have never enjoyed the widespread respect and devotion that mothers have received over the years, and the rising divorce rate has given the whole concept of in-laws a less permanent place in our families. This may be part of the reason why Mother-in-Law Day has failed to catch on like the other "special days". But many people feel that mothers-in-law deserve a special day of their own, if for no other reason that for their good humor in enduring the many jokes that have been told about them. Here are a few of my favorite Mother-in-Law jokes.

To save space I will use MIL for the term Mother-in-Law.

A husband & wife had a fight. Wife called her mom: "He fought with me again. I am coming to stay with you." Mom said, "no dear, he must pay for his mistake. I am coming to stay with you!"

Mark sees his MIL riding a bicycle.

Mark: Where are you going?

MIL: to the cemetery.

Mark: Who's going to return the bike?

John's MIL came to visit & he asked:

How long do you plan to stay?

MIL: just until I start getting on your nerves.

John: oh, so you won't even stay for coffee?

I have a daughter named after my MIL.

Passive-Aggressive Psycho turns 5 next week.

Behind every successful man stands a supportive wife and a surprised MIL.

*Do you know the punishment for bigamy?
Two Mothers-in-Law.*

What's the difference between outlaws and in-laws? Outlaws are wanted.

A man, wife, & his MIL were on a trip to the Holy Land when the MIL had a massive heart attack & died. The local folks offered to bury her in the Holy Land for $500 or ship her body back to the U.S. for $5000. The husband chose to ship her back. When asked why he would spend so much he replied, "y'all buried a guy that came back to life after 3 days. I'm not taking that chance."

That last joke was told by a pastor friend while traveling to the Holy Land with his wife AND his MIL. She thought it was hilarious.

Now, on to the important stuff.

The Week of October 24-30 is:

- Red Ribbon Week
- Give Wildlife a Brake! Week
- National Massage Therapy Week
- Pastoral Care Week

Some celebrations only last a day:

24th-Food Day

- Mother-in-Law Day
- Bologna Day (coincidence?)

25th-Accountant's Day

- Greasy Food Day
- World Pasta Day

26th-Howl at the Moon Night

- Mule Day
- Chicken Fried Steak Day
- Pumpkin Day
- Mincemeat Day

27th-Black Cat Day

- Cranky Co-Workers Day
- National American Beer Day

28th-Champagne Day

- National Chocolate Day
- Animation Day

29th-Frankenstein Friday

- National Breadstick Day
- International Bandana Day
- National Oatmeal Day
- National Cat Day
- National Hermit Day

30th-Haunted Refrigerator Night

- National Candy Corn Day
- Hug a Sheep Day

Have a great week & call if you need anything!

Serving Him & Loving it!

Carol 😊

Pastor Bill 901-569-1428

Pastor Cassie 678-492-3956

Carol 803-360-7137

WEEKLY GIGGLES

Do I hear banjo music?