Stuffing vs. Dressing?

Stuffing or dressing? Which do you serve at Thanksgiving? I never really thought about the difference growing up. I only knew that my Uncle Bob would NOT eat anything pulled out of the inside of the turkey! So in our family there was always a large pan of dressing. It was probably the same thing that most folks stuffed into their turkey, but to Uncle Bob, it was all about the presentation.

Thanksgiving is approaching & we all have certain family traditions. Some make sense and some traditions do not.

- Green bean casserole or plain green beans?
- Just turkey or do you have ham as well? If turkey, is it roasted or fried?
- Mashed potatoes or rice? Or neither since you're having dressing?
- Sweet potato casserole with pecans or marshmallows?
- Then there's the cranberry sauce debate. Canned or homemade?

The dessert debate is not any easier.

- Pumpkin or Sweet Potato Pie?
- Cheesecake? Uncle Bob claimed to not like cream cheese either, but he always ate cheesecake. He had no clue.
- Pound Cake? If yes, then what kind? Sour cream? Chocolate? Plain? Fruit on top or not?

Whatever you eat and wherever you eat it, I hope you have a wonderful time with family & friends!

Now for the important stuff.
