

Golden Agers Rock!

CELEBRATING SENIORS MAKING THE BEST OF THE REST OF THEIR LIVES

VOLUME 4, ISSUE 29

AUGUST 7, 2020

It's Now or Never - Celebrate Elvis Week!

Elvis died while I was in high school, and I remember everyone being all shook up over his death. I liked his music, but he wasn't always on my mind like he was with so many. Yes, he started life in the ghetto and ended up in viva Las Vegas, but I've never been one to have burning love for a singer. I have always been in the group of folks with suspicious minds about a hound dog who depended on a little less conversation to get his point across. That's all right, it just meant that I didn't have a blue Christmas that year because I wasn't one of those girls that can't help falling in love with a person who was more likely to do the jailhouse rock than to love me tender. I could never surrender to a man who wore blue suede shoes and spent most of his time in heartbreak hotel.

Now, go back and see if you can find all 17 Elvis songs above.

The second week of August is:

- International Tree Climbing Week
- Elvis Week
- Weird Contest Week

COMMENTS from the Bible ABOUT QUARANTINE & LIFE IN GENERAL

When I forget that I'm wearing a mask and try to take a drink:

"I am more stupid than any other person..." (Proverbs 30:2)

When you put leftover spaghetti & meatballs in Tupperware:

"You are stained red..." (Isaiah 1:18)

Getting my kid out of the bath is like:

"And they seized him, but he left the linen cloth and ran away naked." (Mark 14:51-52)

When you have a garlicky lunch and put your mask on to leave:

"...your breath is a fire that consumes you." (Isaiah 33:11)

When you live in Florida and your friends talk about visiting:

"Because of the present crisis, I think it is best to remain as you are." (1 Corinthians 7:26)

When people wear masks beneath their noses:

"They can do you no good, nor can they rescue you, because they are useless." (1 Samuel 12:21)
