My Favorite Month is HERE!

October is my favorite month! No, I am not a pumpkin-spice lover, I just love the cooler weather & college football. I love the food & the clothes of fall. It's a perfect time to be home, rocking on a screened porch, wrapped in a sweater, sipping hot chocolate & enjoying a more laid-back atmosphere. I once offered (when I was teaching) to work the month of July if I could have all of October off. They didn't go for it. Bummer.

My sister is here this weekend. Which means that I no longer exist. Which is honestly fine
