Thoughts from Pastor Cassie

Here in our community, we will have just barely started August & the school year will already be beginning. The fastest summer ever flew right by us. It was full of good ministry & a lot of fun; praise be to God!

For little ones, one of the best things about going to school is when it's your turn to be the line leader. Sometimes teachers will draw popsicles sticks out of a cup. When your name is drawn, it's simply the best day ever. You get to be the teacher's helper during morning circle time. You get to help pass out the crayons. You're the first one to pick out your hot lunch and chocolate milk. What joy!

Being the line leader adds some fun to something that is so helpful for teachers who are trying to safely get their little ducks from one place to the next. If I follow the person in front of me, I know where to go, & I'm safe...as long as the line leader does the right thing.

Toward the end of one of the most well-known passages of scripture, we have the word "follow". In our English translations, it fits nicely & brings comfort, but in its original language of Hebrew, it's a word that brings a great depth of love like no other.

"Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, & I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever." ~ Psalm 23:6 ESV

I came across a quote from theologian Chad Bird on God's goodness & mercy. I shared it with at least three people. It's so good.

Chad Bird writes, "The goodness & mercy of God PURSUE us all the days of our lives. They do not merely 'follow' us, but radaf (רָדַף - the Hebrew verb for 'chase down or pursue'. Chased by mercy, hounded by goodness, pursued by the love of Jesus, we enter & dwell in the Father's house as his beloved lambs, part of the fold for which Christ laid down his life (John 10:11)."

How comforting it is to ponder how God's goodness & mercy follow us. The Psalmist reassures us that God's love is always there with us, right in step with us, wherever you go. How intriguing is it, though, to consider how God seeks us out, how God never tires of showing up for us & leading us with His great love?

When you send your little ones off to school (even if they're taller than you now), pray for them. Kiss their faces & tell them how much Jesus loves them. And don't worry. God's love is pursuing them wherever they go.

Blessings!

Book Club for August

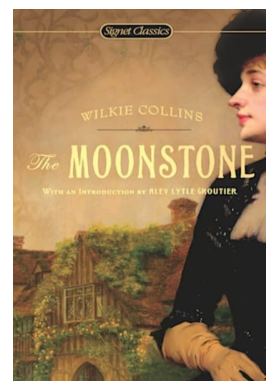

The Moonstone by Wilkie Collins

Rachel Verinder, a young English woman, inherits a large Indian diamond on her 18th birthday. It is a legacy from her uncle, a corrupt British army officer who served in India. The diamond is of great religious significance and extremely valuable, & three Hindu priests have dedicated their lives to recovering it. The story incorporates elements of the legendary origins of the Hope Diamond (or perhaps the Orloff Diamond or the Koh-i-Noor).

Rachel's 18th birthday is celebrated with a large party at which the guests include her cousin Franklin Blake. She wears the Moonstone on her dress that evening for all to see, including some Indian jugglers who have called at the house.

Later that night the diamond is stolen from Rachel's bedroom, and a period of turmoil, unhappiness, misunderstandings, & ill luck ensues. Told by a series of narratives from some of the main characters, the complex plot traces the subsequent efforts to explain the theft, identify the thief, trace the stone, and recover it.

We will meet to discuss the book on Tuesday, August 27th @ 6:30 pm in the Gathering Room. Call Brenda Hedgecock with questions.

Thank You Notes, etc.

Faith, Family, & Friends,

How many times have we heard that? It applies to all of you at St. Peter's for your outpouring of love & support since my loss of Bob.

How thankful I am to be a part of this wonderful congregation. This rally behind me offering cards, food, calls, prayers, and hugs have been lifesavers to me. I thank you all for your wonderful show of caring & am most appreciative of your ongoing support.

Thanks & prayers to all,

To the Congregation of St. Peter's Lutheran Church,

Do you ever wonder what happens to all of the money we collect for school supplies? Well, here's this year's list of what was purchased or donated.

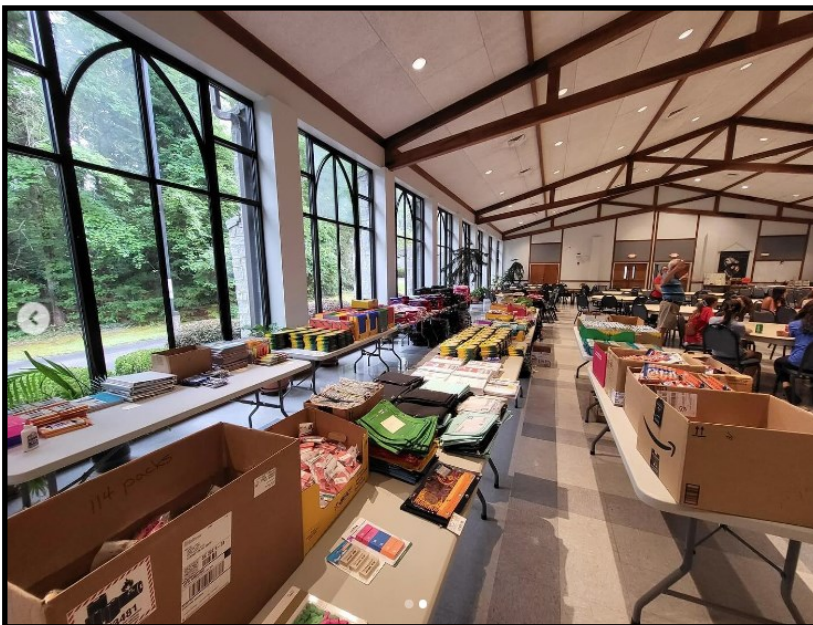

First, we gather everything—some from Larry's house, the rest from Wal-Mart. We outgrew the FH, so the PLC is used. Thanks to all of the volunteers who gathered to help unload trucks. Y'all are the best! (video @ Instagram.com/stpetesyouth) Next, items are sorted & backpacks are stuffed. Special thanks to our Youth Group who are ALWAYS excited to help and they do a fabulous job!

Next week, we will deliver items to several schools and will pray with their staff. (Yes, the youth help with this as well.)

Our phenomenal coordinator for this massive project is our own Larry James. He has made it his mission for MANY YEARS to make sure kids have what they need to succeed in school. Larry's passion is what takes our school supply drive to another level. Thank you, Mr. Larry!

Snack Sack Ministry

This mission outreach program began at our church in the fall of the 2011 school year, so this will be the 14th school year! It began with Meadow Glen Elementary and we still deliver to them.

The program provides a “Snack Sack” of food for children on the weekends and holidays during the school year. Last year we prepared/delivered bags for 65 children each week & that number could increase this year. These children may not get meals over the weekend without these food bags. We purchase the prepackaged food bags from Harvest Hope for a small fee.

The children in need of the sacks are identified by school personnel and their identities are kept confidential. Our only mission is to purchase, pack, and deliver the sacks to the school. We have a devoted group of volunteers who are ready to pack the sacks and deliver them each week.

How can YOU help?

Pray...for this mission outreach program.

Pray...for the volunteers who pack and deliver the sacks.

Pray...for the children who receive the sacks.

And finally, if YOU feel led to give, we need your help with monetary donations throughout the school year. Please mark your check or envelope Snack Sack Ministry. We will also be asking for donations of large plastic jars of PB&J that are included with their snack sacks at Christmas & at the end of the school year. There is a bin in the Parish Life Center (PLC) for those donations.

We are so grateful for your continued support & prayers for this ministry. If you have any questions, please call: Edie Beaver @ 803-920-1748 or Jenny Stone @ 803-605-1325.

“For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat...”

Educational Ministry

New Adult Sunday School Class Begins August 25th in the Conference Room

Have you wondered why Lutherans conduct worship services with Liturgy? Have you asked yourself why Lutherans do things differently from other churches? A new Sunday School class will help you understand how Lutherans look to the scripture to determine our doctrine. Books will be provided.

Hallmarks of Lutheran Identity class is structured to assist in understanding the Lutheran Church's teachings in a nontechnical way. The class is discussion based and will guide us to learn the Christian tenets held by the Lutheran church based on Scripture alone.

The Rev. Friedreich Bente wrote in his preface to the Concordia Triglotta: ^(a)

“The Lutheran Church differs from all other churches in being essentially the Church of the pure Word and unadulterated Sacraments. The precious truths confessed by her symbols in perfect agreement with the Holy Scriptures constitute the true beauty and rich treasures of our Church, as well as the never-failing source of her vitality and power”

^(a) Historical Introductions to the Lutheran Confessions, (St. Louis: Concordia Publishing House, 2005)

Back to Sunday School Carnival is August 4th at 10 am in the Parish Life Center.

Educational Ministry has planned a fun morning of carnival games (toss a frog, race a pig, pin the 95 theses on the church door, bean bag toss, & three in a row), plus popcorn, and prizes to kick-off the new Sunday School year. Join us for a fun time fellowship!

Youth and Adult classes will meet as usual.

Blessing
of the Backpacks

Please bring your school backpack to worship for a special blessing during the children's message. Learn how you can take Jesus with you every day.

Sunday, August 4th @ both services

Bible Study Opportunities

Wednesday Morning Bible Study meets, as the name implies, on Wednesday mornings at 10 am in the Fellowship Hall. Led by our Pastors, this group takes an in-depth look at different books of the Bible. There is a lot of discussion and good fellowship in this group. Free coffee.

Mustard Seeds gather for a light dinner and Bible study on Wednesday evening at 6:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall. They will begin Season 4 of The Chosen soon. Call Brenda Hedgecock with questions.

Sunday School Classes span all ages & life stages. Here's the current list of classes.

- Refuge is made up of young married couples with small children. Pastor Cassie teaches this group in the Gathering Room at 10 am on Sunday mornings. Call Pastor Cassie to see what we're studying now.
- Busters class members are typically (but not always) married and have kids ranging from upper elementary to college age. Pastor Judson leads this group. They meet in room 210.
- Joyful Believers are typically couples with grown children and are entering the "check out this picture of my grandchild" phase of life. Spouse doesn't come to church or is otherwise detained during the SS hour? Not a problem. Several of their folks come alone. They are getting ready to start a new study called "The Bible Recap." Joyful Believers meet in room 209.
- The Seekers group covers all adult ages and study topics. They are taught by Larry James and they meet in the Fellowship Hall.
- Adult One Sunday School class is led by Bible expert Nancy Wylie and is open to all ages. They meet in room 202.
- Hallmarks of Lutheran Identity class is designed to assist in understanding the Lutheran Church's teachings in a nontechnical way. The class is discussion based and will guide us to learn the Christian tenets held by the Lutheran church based on Scripture alone. Chip Rhoads will be teaching this class which begins August 25th. They will meet in the Conference Room in the office building.

If your birthday or anniversary is not showing up on any of our publications, it means your information is not in our system. If you would like to be included, please put the dates on the back of your communion slip or call the church office to have your information added to our database. Thank you!
