How to Have a Welcoming Spirit

"In Christian love you have presented this child for Holy Baptism. You should, therefore, faithfully bring her to the services of God's house, and teach her the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments. As she grows in years, you should place in her hands the Holy Scriptures and provide for her instruction in the Christian faith, that, living in the covenant of her baptism and in communion with the Church, she may lead a godly life until the day of Jesus Christ. Do you promise to fulfill these obligations?" [LBW]

With these words, the pastor addresses the parents of the baptismal candidate. The parents respond, "I do." The water is poured three times, the forehead is anointed with oil, & a candle is lit. We stand in awe of what God has done. His grace has flowed through the font & washed over the life of this precious little one. The babe is now given a new name: "Child of God."

As a congregation, we've gotten the chance to witness this joy three times so far this year when Rachel, McKenna, and Graelynn were each baptized. We have more baptisms coming up that we are preparing for with families.

It is exciting to see families with children worship alongside us on Sunday mornings. We love to see children bounce down the aisle as they come forward for a children's message. We love to hear their coos and see their cute smiley faces. It's so good to be together as the Church, all of us at different ages and stages of life. Together, we're the body of Christ, and that takes all of us to be a part.

Recently our youth group interviewed several members of our church to ask them about their favorite memories from their time at St. Peter's. Through sitting down and talking with more "seasoned saints" our teenagers got the opportunity to hear stories of what it takes to keep the Church going. The original intention of the project was to create a video to show the congregation, which you'll get to see at our Homecoming lunch. Through these interview sessions we also got the added blessing of people of different generations engaging in conversation, sharing their perspectives on life in the Church.

How might you extend your welcome to someone in a different age or stage of life than you? Will you sit down with them at Coffee Time? Will you reach across the pews to share the peace? Will you stop in the grocery store aisle and talk to that (cont.)

familiar face and say, “Hey, haven’t I seen you at St. Peter’s?” Will you serve alongside them? Will you sing with them in the choir, or study the Bible with them in Sunday School?

Who did you think about in all these scenarios? How might the Holy Spirit be nudging you? I’ll be bold enough to ask the Holy Spirit for more of those nudges. We are so blessed to have a welcoming spirit here at St. Peter’s. Let’s see what God will do.

Blessings!

Dear St. Peter's,

We wanted to thank you for your partnership in the Dam to Dam Relay. Allowing us the use of your facilities* on February 17, 2024 has helped us tremendously. One hundred percent of the profit from this race goes to help people in our communities. We support Mission Lexington as they serve families in need in the community. We also contribute to the Faith Home Recovery Center in Greenwood. Thank you again for helping us support these worthwhile organizations.

We hope this partnership will continue and we look forward to talking to you soon. If you have any concerns please let us know.

Sincerely,

Simon Froese & Matt Porth

**Our church parking lot was one of the first exchange places on the route from the Lake Murray Dam to the Greenwood Dam. By allowing them to use the restrooms at the Scout Hut they were able to donate more funds to Mission Lexington.*

1000 Thank You's in 2024

This year in our ministry we are placing a special emphasis on expressing our thankfulness to others. All are invited to take part in our congregation's challenge to write "One Thousand Thank You's" this year. Take a card from this table or use your own, jot down a simple thank you note, and give it to someone you want to thank!

Do you think we can send "One Thousand Thank You's?"

You can help us track our progress by adding to our display board. When you write a card, please take a mini Post-it note, write the name of the person you are thanking, and stick the Post-it note on the display board.

There are several ways to send your thank you notes:

Drop your card for a church member right in our mail shelf created by Brenda Hedgecock near the Fellowship Hall .

(Thank you, Brenda! There, only 999 more to go!)

Hand deliver your card! You could brighten someone's day.

Send your card in the mail. Yay, something other than a bill!

Who will you thank?

A committee member for all their hard work.

Our choirs for their musical offerings during our worship.

A coworker for helping you with a big project.

A classmate or neighbor for their friendship.

A young family for bringing their baby to worship with them.+

The clerk at Publix that is always smiling & helpful!

And anyone else you can think of!

The people we cherish and the reasons for giving thanks are endless! Donations are welcome for thank you cards (blank inside). If you have any questions or you'd like to share a God moment, contact the Pastors!
